

MARCH 5 - 7

SECOND CHANCES: LIFE AFTER PRISON

MONDAY | MARCH 5 | 4-6PM
MEMORIAL CHURCH

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsored by the Hutchins Center for African & African American Research

This roundtable brings together leading activists who have served prison sentences to consider obstacles formerly incarcerated people face, as well as to explore policies and programs that can help us heal from the consequences of mass imprisonment.

VIVIAN NIXON

Executive Director
College and Community Fellowship

TYRONE WERTS

Inside/Out Exchange Program Think Tank
Soros Justice Fellow

JAY JORDAN

Project Director
Californians for Safety and Justice

CHERYL WILKINS

Center for Justice at Columbia University

KHALIL MUHAMMAD, Chair

Professor of History, Race and Public Policy
Harvard Kennedy School

NORFOLK PRISON DEBATE SOCIETY VS.
HARVARD DEBATE TEAM

Resolved: The United States Should Abolish
the Electoral College

WEDNESDAY | MARCH 7 | 1PM

NOT OPEN TO PUBLIC

MASSACHUSETTS CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTION NORFOLK

THE PAST & FUTURE OF PRISON EDUCATION AT HARVARD

TUESDAY | MARCH 6 | 6-8PM
SANDERS THEATRE

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsored by the Mahindra Humanities Center's Mellon
Seminar on Violence and Non-Violence

This capstone event will bring together representatives from the most innovative and dynamic programs in the country to testify to the range, scope, and depth of prison education. We will highlight the work that has been done at Harvard, and where we can go from here.

MICHELLE JONES

New York University, Indiana Women's Prison
Higher Education Program

STEVEN HAHN & JOSÉ DIAZ

New York University
Prison Education Program

GARRETT FELBER &

PAUL HENRY GRICE, III

Liberation Literacy

KAIA STERN &

CATHERINE SIROIS

Harvard University Prison Studies Project

DARREN MACK

Center for Justice at Columbia University,
Just Leadership, USA, Bard Prison Initiative

DANIELLE ALLEN, Chair

James Bryant Conant University Professor and Director of Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics,
Harvard University

BEYOND THE GATES

HARVARD
Edmond J. Safra Center for Ethics

www.facebook.com/btgharvard/

#beyondthegates

INEQUALITY IN AMERICA